

UNESCO Regional Conference on Quality Assurance of Higher Education in Asia-Pacific

15-16 June 2017 in Shenzhen, China

The aim of the conference was to inform and shape the 2018 global conference on quality assurance in higher education organized by UNESCO. In particular, the goal is to map the status, needs, innovative practices and challenges related to quality assurance in higher education in the Asia-Pacific region.

About 200 participants from 30 countries attended the conference, including CHESICC Director Cheng Weixing. Representatives shared their quality assurance practices, and showcased their quality assurance tools. Finally, through fruitful and efficient discussions, the Shenzhen Statement was produced.
